

The Allegro Partner Program Provides Support to Meet Customer Business Objectives

Allegro and its network of partners deliver end-to-end enterprise ETRM solutions that drive dramatic improvements in productivity, efficiency and revenue for customers worldwide. Teaming provides an opportunity to share knowledge and leverage industry expertise.

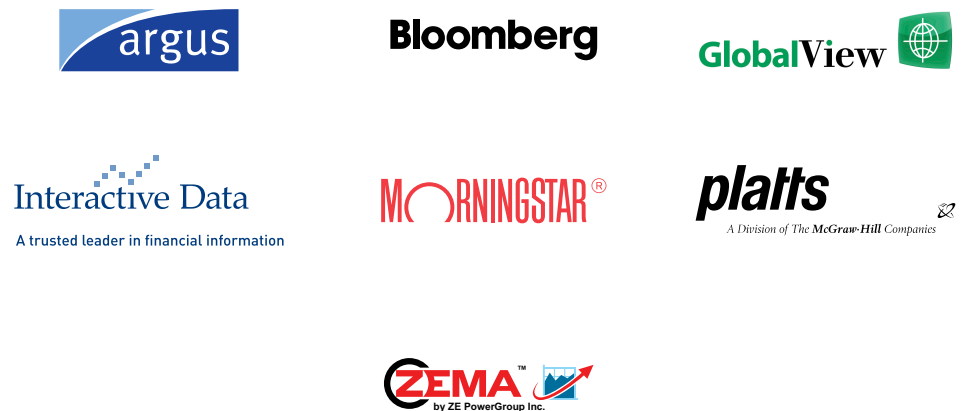

System Integrators

System Integrators provide our customers with opportunity to utilize the industry's major services providers to deliver consulting and implementation support for Allegro software. System Integrators are segmented into Gold, Silver, Bronze and standard tiers depending on a variety of factors including number of certified Allegro consultants and customer references.

Data Partners

Data Partners offer Allegro customers seamless, integrated connectivity to major market data providers. Critical to pricing, trading and managing exposure, these partners provide real-time access to market, financial and credit data. This transparency into market data informs decision making and helps customers increase profitability and gain a competitive advantage.

Software Partners

Software Partners provide software or services that complement, interoperate with, or otherwise add value to Allegro software solutions. These partners represent leading-edge providers who have developed and support integration between their offerings and Allegro solutions. Software Partners help address the specialized needs of customers in areas such as financial engineering, modeling or ERP systems.

Exchange Partners

Exchange Partners provide software and/or services that facilitate transactions or technology integration with leading transaction platforms. The integration of these technologies with Allegro 8 facilitates greater trader productivity and the effective execution of trading strategies by our customers.
